

Ballona Wetland Restoration Project Working Group Meeting Agenda

Wednesday, February 20, 2008, 5-7pm
Loyola Marymount University, 1857 University Hall

Meeting Objectives: The objective of this meeting of the Ballona Wetlands Working group is to provide a forum for non-governmental organizations, land owners and the public to receive updates and reports regarding the progress of the Ballona Wetlands Restoration Plan development process. This meeting and those that follow will also function as a means of exchanging information, ideas and approaches that could benefit the project area and surrounding communities.

1. Introductions.
2. Presentation of Feasibility Analysis
 - Application to alternatives
 - Current progress
3. Surveys, Monitoring and Studies
 - Recently completed projects: plant community mapping, soil coring in area A
 - Projects in progress: water quality monitoring, soil coring in areas B and C, ALTA survey, digitizing t-sheets
 - Projects in development: biological monitoring
4. Presentation of Ballona Wetlands Early Action Plan
5. Public Comments

Questions and Contact:

Sean Bergquist
Santa Monica Bay Restoration Commission
320 West 4th Street, suite 200
Los Angeles, CA 90013
310-216-9899
sbergquist@waterboards.ca.gov